

McCLURE GIVES GREYS ONE HIT AND A'S WIN

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 9—McClure's great exhibition of pitching was the big feature in the downfall of the Pittsburg Grey Sox this afternoon. The Hoosier twister had the locals completely buffaloed, allowing them only one safe blow in the seven innings, the game being called at the end of that session on account of darkness. The game was a twilight affair.

The score:

A. B. C.....	1	0	0	1	2	2	0	—6	14	2
Grey Sox	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	—1	1	2

Batteries—McClure and Powell;
Hall and Barrett.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, September 18, 1920, Page 2, Column 1