

John H. Lloyd to Manage Brooklyn Royal Giants

New York, N. Y., Feb. 13.—John Henry Lloyd, who has played and managed many of the big teams all through the country, as well as being the star shortstop of the profession, has signed up with Owner Nat C. Strong of New York, "owner" of the Brooklyn Royal Giants, to manage the team the coming season.

Lloyd managed the Brooklyn Royals in 1918 as well as in the early part of 1919 and left to join the Bacharach Giants. Lloyd, who is making his winter quarters at 1 Thompson street, Atlantic City, N. J., expects to have the strongest team in the East and will spare no expense in order to procure the same.

For the first time in many years an East and West series will be played, as arrangements have practically been closed with Rube Foster for a trip of the Royal Giants to Chicago this summer. In arranging this series the big fight between the East and West has been forgotten and no doubt several of the big Eastern teams will tour the Middle West this season.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, February 14, 1920, Page 9, Column 6