

New York.—Fans of the opinion that there was an arrangement relative to splitting the games equally during the series between the American Giants and Bacharach Giants played at Ebbetts' field changed their minds when Grant smashed Shively, claiming he intentionally tried to spike him sliding into first base. One fan remarked: "Gee, Robe is trying to win." Editor's note: It's a safe bet the games were on the level.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, October 30, 1920, Page 6, Column 3