

Beaumont Oilers will mix in a three game series with the Giants Sunday and Monday, June 13 and 14, at Gardner Park with a double header Monday.

In the coming of the Oilers fans may expect to see a real ball game, as the Oilers are a tough bunch and the Giants' Machine is fastly rounding into a formidable outfit and in the contest some classy stuff will be dished out to local bugs.

Ruben Jones has his eyes on the ball. Hamilton, the local popular short fielder, is expecting some clever stunts with the stick. Jerry Williams the Giants star second sacker.

is smashing the bean at a terrific clip.

Vash Harris is rounded into a high-class fly chaser. His work in left garden Sunday was somewhat spectacular. His sensational running catch Sunday saved the Giants from a much earlier defeat.

Daniel's work in the box Sunday was a clever bit of hurling. He has the kick in that right soup bone.

Mr. Cohen, proprietor of Cohen's Millinery and Ready-to-wear is an enthusiastic follower of base ball. He has put up a prize for the first batter who hits the fence clearly on either side with a batted ball, will be rewarded by him a $5.00 bill. Mr. Cohen made similar offers to Colored teams last year.

The Giants are 40 per cent stronger now than at any time during the organization of the machine.
