

Mr. Frank "Cat Fish" Alexander was in Fort Worth Sunday hobnobbing with friends.

Mr. Enos Whitaker, owner of the Black Giants, is preparing to give his patrons the fastest club that ever represented Dallas.

Eddie Douglass, first sacker of the Brooklyn Royals, who went up from the Black Giants writes his ex-manager that he would like to again be in "Old London."

Neil Pullen, first string catcher of the Black Oilers made a hurry up call to see manager Cal Lister.

Jas. Hamilton, the pier of all short-stops and prince of second basemen recieved an offer to play in Los Angeles this season.

Johnson Hill and Chaney White, one fleet-footed out fielder are slated to be sold to Detroit.

Note: The Dallas Express was made the official organ of the Texas Colored League; its columns are open to correspondents, owners and managers send in your matter early.

Reuben Jones, a fast town lotter will cavort around the hot corner for the Black Giants.

"San Top" catcher and captain of the Royal Giants is in Fort Worth for the winter.

President Hiram McGar of the Fort Worth Club sent to Dallas and purchased a set of uniforms, all new, and an outlay of $500.00.

The "Big New Yorker," Dave Johnson was over last Wednesday conferring with Manager Whitaker and Capt. Sloan of the Black Giants.

The 1920 Season is the banner year for beginners and new ones in the game. J. J. Macklin and S. B. Perkins of San Antonio, Dud Wade and

H. S. McCoy of Houston, Bennie Jefferson et. al. at Austin will have their first fling as a magnate. A. R. Prior also comes in for his share in this line at Dallas.

The managerial roles will be played by the following as an opener: Enos Whitaker, Dallas; Ed Mason, Wichita Falls; Fort Worth as in former years will be by Pres. McGar; Waco by Heine Flins; W. B. Patterson at Austin; Uncle Johnny Jones who was a star of the 90's will direct things for the Black Buf's. while Cal Lister will continue to instruct Beaumont.

Dallas Express, Dallas, TX

Saturday, March 27, 1920, Page 9, Columns 1 to 3