

JUDGE'S ALL-STARS LAND ANOTHER FROM BROOKLYN

Visiting Giants Defeated By One
Run as Owen Pitches Air-Tight Ball.

The Joe Judge All-Stars won the second game of the four game series from the Brooklyn Royal Giants yesterday at the American League Park by the score of 3 to 2. The game was one of the fastest and perhaps the most interesting game played here.

The All-Stars found Gardner for ten hits and would have rolled up a larger score had it not been for the sensational fielding of Lloyd, the star shortstop and manager of the visiting team. Ellerbe and Judge brought the fans to their feet more than once by their excellent fielding.

Owens, the local pitcher, who was on the slab for the All-Stars was given perfect support which enabled him to keep the Brooklynites hits down to six.

A single by Franklin Baker and a sacrifice by Brower, resulted in the first score for the home team, when O'Rourke followed with a slashing single through second. The visitors scored both of their runs in the sixth on singles by Brooks, Scott and Pullen and a double by Lloyd. The All-Stars scored their winning run in the ninth by a double by O'Rourke and a single by Courtney.

The Washington Times, Washington, DC

Thursday, October 7, 1920, Page 14, Column 4