Millville dropped the second game in a row to the Bacharach Giants at the Inlet Ball Park, Atlantic City, yesterday. The score was 5 to 1. Inferior ballplaying lost the fracas. Millville failed to reveal any of the aggressive energy which has stamped the team's playing of late and doing the wrong thing at inopportune times went a long way in bringing about yesterday's downfall.

"Ray" Steinader was wild and that had something to do with the tallies that came early in the game and his failure to cover first in the eighth round made it possible to obtain the last two.

Everybody on the Millville club appeared to have an off day, with the possible exception of Peterson, who put up a sensational game at short, and, most of all, they were unable to do anything with Wickware's slow ball pitching. He held them hitless until the sixth when Steinader finally poled a single over short.

"Rube" Cashman and Seiferman had bad days. "Rube" was unable to connect with Johnson's offerings, fanning three out of four times up and Seiferman had a tough time of it around second. Hopkins injured his finger, which troubled him considerably in throwing.

Millville's Chances.

Millville looked threatening in the sixth. After Hogan had fanned, Hopkins walked. Steinader singled. Robinson flied out to Taylor and Seiferman was safe on Hutchinson's error. With the bases loaded and Nelson up the chances looked good. Then Seiferman was caught napping at first base and away went the opportunity.

In the seventh Nelson led off with a single. Cashman lined to Brown, who doubled Nelson at first. Helfrich walked. Peterson singled to left. Hogan singled to centre, Helfrich scoring. Poles pegged to Chappie and Peterson attempted to reach third, but was caught by Chappie's quick peg to Hutchinson.

In the ninth with one down, Nelson singled. Cashman fanned. Helfrich walked. Peterson singled to left centre and the bases were loaded, but Hogan's fly was caught by Shivley.

The Bacharach Runs.

Poles, first man up in the opener, was hit by a pitched ball. He stole second and third. Shivley walked and stole second. Handy was out. Helfrich to Cashman. Lloyd flied out to Hogan, who threw poorly in an effort to get Poles at the plate. Seiferman threw badly on Taylor's roller and Shivley counted. Seiferman threw out Brown.

In the third, Poles walked and went to second on Steinader's bad peg to catch him napping. Shivley was tossed out by Helfrich. Handy was hit by a pitched ball and stole second. Lloyd singled, scoring Poles.

In the eighth, Cashman stopped Brown's bounder, but Steinader failed to cover first. Hutchinson fanned. Chappie singled, scoring Brown. Johnson singled, scoring Chappie. The tabulation:
