

SPRUDELS TO PLAY HERE NEXT FRIDAY

The West Baden Sprudels, one of the fastest colored baseball teams in the United States, will come to Richmond Friday to play the Richmond team. The game will be called at 3 o'clock at Athletic park, and a large crowd is expected to attend, as local fans have seen the Sprudels in action before.

The colored team will be one its way to play the Cincinnati Shamrocks in that city at the league park on Sunday afternoon. The last time the Sprudels played the Shamrocks, the colored men won by a score of 2 to 1, in a fourteen inning game.

The Sprudels claim to carry three of the best colored pitchers in the world. The Sprudels have been colored champions of the state for five years.

Three-fingered Jackson, formerly with Atlanta and Chattanooga teams in the Southern league, will be given a try-out for pitcher with the Richmond team early in the afternoon on Friday.
