
In the Field of Sport.

BY HAROLD C. McGATH.

The Keystones, of Minneapolis, Minn., will play at West Baden, and French Lick the latter part of April, and then to St. Louis and Kansas City.

Albert Toney, better known as Black Johnnie Evers, has turned down an offer from the Royal Giants of Kansas City, Mo., to take the captaincy of the famous Ploto of French Lick, Ind. Toney has his eye on some boys that are the real goods.

The Klothe Reds baseball team of Hot Springs, Ark., report a death list of three players for the past year. They are Blipp, the famous young pitcher, who was killed last May; Hilton, pitcher, and Sam Butler, first baseman, who died Feb. 26th.

The Kloethe Reds baseball team will open the baseball season in Hot Springs with the famous St. Louis Giants (Chas. Mills, Mgr.) for a series of games, April 4, 5 and 6. Want to hear from all first-class clubs. Prospects are for banner season in the Vapor city.

The two crack baseball teams of Hot Springs, the Kloethe Reds, under the management of Dave Johnson, and the Majestic White Socks, under the management of Will Newton, are getting very active. They will be ready for real action in just a few more weeks. It will pay outside managers of good teams to get in touch with them for dates. Read Freeman and keep posted. Can be found every week at Will Page pool and billiard room, 205 Central avenue, H. F. Foster, agent.

The Keystones, of Minneapolis, Minn., is made up to date as follows: Catchers—Jas. A. Wills, of Waco, Tex.; Jack Watts, of Terre Haute. Pitchers—Chas. Jackson, of Keystones; Hurley M. S. Nair, of Houston, Tex.; Wm. Dismikes, of West Baden. Bunch Davis, s. s.; Milroy McCune, 3rd b.; James Wallace, 2nd b., of Louisville Cubs; Geo. Watson, 1st b., of Louisville Cubs; outfielders, Bert Woods, l. f., of Louisville Cubs; Archie Pate, c. f.; Jesse Briscoe, r. f., of New York Giants.

The World's Famous Cuban Giants will not make any Southern Trip this spring, doing their spring training in and around New York. Nat C. Strong, World Building, is doing the Sunday booking around New York. New players have been signed from Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Columbus, Buffalo, Washington and Louisville, Ky. The schedule is nearly filled up to Oct. 1. The club takes the road June 5, working up through Massachusetts, Vermont, opening up in Buffalo June 25, playing the first game of a big series with the crack Puttmans, of Buffalo.

Kansas City Royal Giants leave here
March 28th under the management of

G. W. Walden to their training quarters. They open up in New Orleans March 5th and 6th; Mobile, 9th, 10th and 11th; Pensacola, Fla., 15th, 16th and 17th; Montgomery 16th, 20th and 21st; Anniston, Ala., 25th and 26th; Birmingham, 28th and 29th; Holly Springs, Miss., 1st of April; Hot Springs, Ark., 9th, 10th and 11th; Muskogee, Okla., 15th, 16th; from there home. Manager Walden says that Kansas City will have one of the best clubs ever stationed here and when the 1912 league opens up the Royals will be among the top notchers. Would like to hear from all first class clubs wishing dates in Kansas city. Those on the trip: Otto Bolden, John Merida, Johnnie Pugh, Son Hatten, Skinny Williams, Tom Sterman, Tiller, Geo. Jackson, Rube Washington, Sunny Jim, Roy Dorsey, and Carter of Louisville.

THE NEW ORLEANS BASEBALL CLUB

The New Orleans baseball club opened the season Sunday, Feb. 26th, defeating the Grays, a local club, 14-0. A very large crowd turned out to see the New Orleans team in action. All the boys worked well. The game was full of exciting plays. The feature of the game was the hitting of the birds. Everybody seemed satisfied with the way Mgr. Walker and the birds worked. On next Sunday the famous Kansas City Royal Giants will tackle the locals and everybody is expecting a big day. Mr. Frank Polando was all smiles n the stand Sunday. One thng about hm. you cannot tell when he's losng. We would like to hear from Louisville, Indianapolis and Evansville managers. Address all letters Frank Walker, 8838 Oak St.,

New Orleans, La.

SATISFIED WITH OUR POSITION.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 21, 1911.

Mr. Harold C. McGrath,

Sporting Editor of The Freeman.

Dear Sir: Having noted the article published in the February 11 issue of your paper, of the Unions, I hereby do extend my highest appreciation of publication of same. We are making great strides toward a very successful season.

Yours in sport,
