

W. BADEN SPRUDELS PLAY HERE SUNDAY

---

Many Local Teams Have No
Games Scheduled For
That Date.

---

Judging from present indications, only one or two baseball games will be played by local team next Sunday. The main attraction Sunday will be the contest between Richmond and the West Baden Sprudels at Athletic park. Outside of this headliner no games probably will be played in this vicinity.

The Marshallettes and Senators have been unable to get games, and their affairs are at a standstill. The grandstand on the field used by the Murrays at Cambridge City blew down in the recent wind and rainstorm, and no effort has been made for the erection of a new one. The team also has been unable to get a game.

---

Richmond Palladium and Sun-Telegram, Richmond, IN

Thursday, July 10, 1913, Page 6, Column 1